

March 3-9, 2014

In San Carlos: Women of Aviation Week March 3-9; Introduce Girls & Women to Aviation Careers, Role Models, FREE Flights

*REGISTER for free orientation flights (girls ages 7+) here (www.womenofaviationweek.org/rsvp/sancarlos/)

Aviation Panel, 5:30pm, Friday, March 7th, Hiller Aviation Museum in San Carlos - An interactive discussion with these women aviation professionals. REGISTER here.

Olga E. Custodio – Air Force Lt. Colonel (Ret.); 1st Latina to complete US Air Force pilot training; 1st Latina commercial airline Captain with American Airlines

Graciela Tiscareño-Sato– Air Force veteran/Captain KC-135 refueling tanker Navigation instructor, speaker, award-winning author of bilingual children’s book Good Night Captain Mama

A Girl Scout enjoys her first flight in a small plane. WOA 2013.

Women of Aviation Week is held annually and globally to foster diversity in aviation by celebrating history, raising awareness, and sparking vocations as thousands of girls and women are introduced to aviation. Learn more at www.womenofaviationweek.org

Gretchen Kelly Airport Division Manager, San Mateo County Airports & private pilot

Ana Uribe – WOA Week San Carlos organizer & private pilot

Staff Sgt Ariel Sauvey Military veteran, Air Traffic Controller at San Carlos Airport

*NOTE: ALL girls under age 18 need parent/guardian signed permission to fly. Girls ages 7-10 can fly only with an adult. Girls ages 11+ can fly without an adult.