

Bring a bilingual, one-of-a-kind, award-winning Latina author to your library for a unique community program

Meet Air Force Captain and veteran Graciela Tiscareño-Sato, a former aviator and daughter of immigrants who served for nine years on active duty globally. Recently honored by The White House as a Champion of Change, Woman Veteran Leader, she's a motivational speaker, author and bilingual STEM consultant for K-12 school districts.

Graciela brings her military flight suits, global aviation charts and other items used in the flight deck of the refueling jet she flew in while in the Air Force. She shares stories from her military career and reads her bilingual books. Program available also in Spanish and via Skype.

Good Night Captain Mama / Buenas Noches Capitán Mamá is the 1st bilingual children's book about women in the military. It's the first in an aviation adventure series to inspire kids toward BIG dreams and STEM careers like aviation. The second book Captain Mama's Surprise / La Sorpresa de Capitán Mamá has a July 4th 2016 pub date. It includes glossaries of aviation terms in Spanish & English. Here's what librarians are saying about this unique bilingual program:

“Graciela's presentation was inspiring, fascinating and educational. She included photos, videos of mid-flight refueling, and her actual flight suits. The whole family will be intrigued...don't miss it!”- Janis O'Driscoll, Division Manager, Programs & Partnerships, Santa Cruz Public Libraries

“Graciela, your presentations were fantastic, and you totally blew me away!” -Watson Addison, Senior Librarian, Watsonville Public Library

“I learned so much and was really "Wow!"ed by the courage and hard work demonstrated in your military service, your positive message, effective interaction with kids and the strong role model you provide in our community.” -Sally Thomas, Supervising Librarian, Hayward Public Library.
