ISBN: 978-0-9834760-3-0

Good Night Captain Mama is the 1st bilingual children's book about women in the military. It's the first in a planned aviation adventure series to inspire kids toward STEM careers.

Little Marco is walking to his bedroom in pajamas carrying his stuffed puppy dog when he notices his mommy in an olive-green military flight suit. His curiosity about the colorful patches on her uniform evolves into a sweet, reassuring conversation between a military mother and her child about why she serves and what she does in the unusual KC-135R aerial refueling airplane

Graciela will visit Auntie's Bookstore in downtown Spokane (402 W. Main Street) from 10 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, July 26th. She'll bring her military flight suits, aviation charts and other items used in the flight deck of the refueling jet to spark children's aviation dreams. She will read her book, share stories, pictures and video from her military career and answer questions. Here's what people are saying about this unique new book:

"...captures the essence of a child's wonder and admiration of his mother's career, while giving the reader a clear and loving explanation of what it's like being in the United States Air Force. It's especially exciting that my students get to learn this information from a mother's perspective." - Theresa Jones, elementary school teacher

"What a powerful and positive image for children to experience!...A great read for children learning about the military, Veterans Day, the Air Force, family relationships, working parents, and more." - Monica Olivera, L4LL and Mommy Maestra

"Well done, much needed, a book all families should have for their children, male or female." -Military Writers Society of America
