

Introducing the Virtual Captain Mama Package: Bring an award-winning, bilingual author into your classroom with NEW digital class + books offering

Elementary School Teachers: Have you ever wanted to have an award-winning author in your classroom to share with your students WHY she wrote her fascinating books? Now you can do this EASILY with a short digital class of the author's story and her books to read with your students!

Meet Air Force Captain and veteran / aviator Graciela Tiscareño-Sato who served for nine years on active duty globally. Honored by The White House as a Champion of Change, Woman Veteran Leader, she's a popular bilingual, motivational storyteller for students.

With this NEW innovative package, it's like the author's in your classroom speaking directly to your students. You'll share Graciela's unique professional journey with your students – a video greeting and a 14-minute "class" filled with photos and video to follow her from her childhood in a large Spanish-speaking family to a prestigious university on a 4-year Air Force ROTC scholarship to the flight deck of the refueling jet she flew in while in the U.S. Air Force and to many countries around the world. She shares highlights from her aviation career that inspired her to write the 1st-EVER bilingual children's book series about women in the military. This motivational author bio compliments the reading of these inspirational books to your students. The Virtual Author Visit is available in Spanish and English. After this experience, your students will be ready to interact via Skype or Google Hangouts to ask the author the questions that'll pop into their curious minds!
