Managers: Ever wanted to have an award-winning author in your classroom to share with students WHY she wrote her books? Now you can EASILY do this with an inspirational author story, plus books to read to/with your students!

Meet Air Force Captain and veteran Graciela Tiscareño-Sato, daughter of immigrants and former military aviator who served for nine years on active duty globally. Honored by The White House as a Champion of Change, Woman Veteran Leader, she’s a sought-after bilingual storyteller and speaker for students, parents, teachers and professionals...a great fit anytime and especially for Veterans Day and Women’s History Month celebrations.

With this innovation, the author’s in the room speaking directly to your students. You’ll enjoy a video greeting and 15-minute “author visit” filled with cool photos and video. You’ll follow the author from her Spanish-speaking childhood home, to a prestigious university on a four-year Air Force ROTC scholarship, to the flight deck of the KC-135R refueling jet on which she flew while serving in the U.S. Air Force. You’ll travel with Graciela to some of the countries where she served. She shares the highlights that inspired her to write the FIRST-EVER bilingual children’s book series about women in the military. Book #3 is now in development!

Virtual Author Visits are available in Spanish and English and include both books. After this experience, your students will want to interact LIVE with the author (via Skype or Hangouts) to ask the questions in their curious minds!

“Graciela's presentation was inspiring, fascinating and educational. She included photos, videos of mid-flight refueling, and her flight suits. You will be intrigued!”- Janis O'Driscoll, Manager, Programs & Partnerships, Santa Cruz Libraries
